

NEWSY NOTES.

ACCIDENTS AND INCIDENTS FROM ALL SECTIONS BY TELEGRAPH.

A Day's Disasters, Crimes and Casualties, at Home and Abroad.

The Malt Whiskey Failure.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., November 23.—At a meeting of the creditors of the Rochester Distilling Company, held here yesterday, a statement was presented by Mr. Duffy showing that the company would have about $50,000 over all liabilities. The company lost about $90,000, the failure in Baltimore and New York. The creditors unanimously adopted resolutions expressing confidence in the company and commending the course it has pursued. The committee appointed to consider the matter reported in favor of taking seventy per cent. of the face of the claims in cash, or notes for the full amount at from three to eighteen months time, without interest.

A Brutal Outrage in New York.

NEW YORK, November 23.—A ruffian Monday morning burst open the door of the cottage of Mrs. M. S. Robinson, the authoress, who lives at Harrison. The poor lady, who was alone in the house, attempted to escape by jumping through a window. Although severely cut by the glass, she at once started across the fields to a neighboring farm house, but when only a few hundred yards from the house she was overtaken by the scoundrel, who, after outraging his victim, carried her back to the house and locked her in a closet. He then robbed the house and made his escape.

Waiting for the Verdict.

NEW YORK, November 23.—A great crowd of spectators gathered in the General Sessions court-room this morning to hear the verdict in the case of ex-boodler Alberman McQuade. Ten o'clock was the hour set by Recorder Smythe for receiving the report from the jury. At noon the jury was still out, and had not sent any word to the court for instructions or anything else.

The Blatant Bob.

NEW YORK, November 23.—A special from Chicago to the Times says that the positive statement will be published today that Col. Ingersoll has accepted a retainer for the defence of the condemned Anarchists, and will argue their case before the Supreme Court in March.

Unprovoked Murder.

EMPORIA, KAN., November 23.—T. D. Collier, son of Rev. Robert L. Collier, now of Kansas City and formerly of Chicago, was shot and instantly killed last night by J. H. Yarbrough, whom he had employed to fill his place as material agent on the Santa Fe railroad during his temporary absence. The men exchanged blows, and were separated. Yarbrough followed Collier to the residence of S. V. Bandren, where Collier lived, and calling him to the door, shot him with a revolver.

A Railroad Horror.

CHAMPAIGNE, ILL., November 23.—At 10 o'clock last evening at Savoy, four miles south of here, a freight train standing on the main track was run into from the rear by a stock train. Engineer James Near, of the stock train, was crushed to death. Albert Dunlop, a merchant of Savoy; John Todd, a blacksmith of Champaign, and John McDonald, a stock dealer of Urbana, all of whom were in the caboose freight train, were terribly crushed, and died in a few moments. Three brakemen were seriously injured.

Beautiful Snow.

BISMARCK, DAK., November 23.—At an early hour yesterday morning the first blizzard of the season, accompanied by a terrific gale and snow-storm, began. The storm increased in fury throughout the day. There are drifts of snow thirty feet deep in the cuts. The mail stages from small towns north and south have not arrived, and it is feared that the drivers have been lost. The blizzard extends over the entire territory and into Montana.

A Steer on the Rampage.

PATERSON, N. J., November 23.—Mrs. Frederick Walker was driving with her two sons last evening when an escaped Texas steer attacked and upset the carriage and gored the horse to death. Mrs. Walker and her sons were thrown out upon the pavement. The shock rendered them all insensible for a time and they were badly bruised. The oldest son had a leg broken. The steer was afterward lassoed, bound and killed.

A Canadian Capture.

LONDON, ONT., November 23.—Dr. Weir, for whose capture rewards aggregating $2,000 have been offered, was captured here to-day. He is wanted in Oscoda, Mich., where he is charged with repeated criminal assaults on a hospital patient of his from whom he kept her friends and who, when they finally got to see her, made an ante-mortem statement of his doings. He will be taken back to Oscoda.

A Sick Householder.

ALBANY, N. Y., November 23.—The sentence of Buddensick, the New York builder who was convicted of manslaughter in that he was responsible for the death of a workman in his employ, caused by the falling of the building, has been confirmed by the Court of Appeals.

A Convict Falls Heir to a Fortune.

LOUISVILLE, November 23.—Jesse Billings, a convict at the Jeffersonville, Ind., penitentiary, was pardoned yesterday morning by Governor Gray. Billings was sent up last April from Daviess county for two years, having been convicted of forgery. Since his incarceration an aunt of his died, leaving him a fortune of more than $100,000, which he will now have an opportunity to enjoy. Billings is a young man and well educated, being a member of a prominent family.

Might Have Been Expected.

CHICAGO, November 23.—A Times special from Oskaloosa, Ia., says: "Two freight trains collided near Lacey, on the Iowa Central road, five miles north of this city, yesterday morning, instantly killing Fireman Martin and seriously injuring an engineer and brakeman. The engineer of the train going south disobeyed orders to side-track his train at Lacey. He claims to have had no sleep for 60 hours, and was asleep when he passed Lacey. The loss to the company is estimated at $50,000."

Very Sad, If True.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., November 23.—William S. Chase, a boy 17 years old, was turned out from his home yesterday, and becoming discouraged he bought poison, which he took, and died at the Rhode Island hospital at 3 o'clock this morning.

Iron Syndicate in Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., November 23.—The Glass Furnace Company's property has been bought by a Richmond and New York syndicate for $2,000,000. They will capitalize it at $3,000,000 and greatly enlarge its capacity for iron and steel output.

A Fool Who Did Not Steal Enough.

NEW YORK, November 23.—Henry L. Schreiber, an assistant to Mr. Reynolds, a Mount Vernon butcher, was to-day sentenced to three-and-a-half years at hard labor for collecting bills and using the money. Kate Claxton, the actress, was the principal witness for the prosecution.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

Wholesale Murder.

BRESLAU, November 23.—Four persons, comprising the entire family, living a short distance from this place, were killed on Sunday night by a peasant, who entered the house with intent to plunder it, and being discovered, attacked the inmates with a hatchet.

A Prince is Born.

LONDON, November 23.—Princess Beatrice, youngest daughter of Queen Victoria and wife of Prince Henry of Battenburg, has been safely accouched. It is a son. Both mother and child are well. Lord Randolph Churchill was in attendance as a representative of the ministry.

Unparalleled Cheek.

PARIS, FRANCE, November 23.—The Figaro publishes an interview with Sir Charles Dilke, in which he says that his friends have proved that he is the victim of a conspiracy, and that he will bring another suit soon that will publicly establish that fact.

Paris as a Seaport.

PARIS, November 23.—The Paris municipality has under consideration M. Labadie's scheme for widening and deepening the Seine sufficiently to make Paris a seaport. The cost of the work, as estimated by M. Labadie, will be 40,000,000 francs.

The Burke-Dempsey Fight.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 23.—It was supposed by some that the Sullivan-Ryan glove contest would dwarf the interest felt in the Burke-Dempsey fight, which took place to-night. If, however, public interest in the two contests is to be measured by results, then the Burke-Dempsey affair has proved itself a much more interesting and important event than was the "great knockout" of Ryan by Sullivan.

Jack Burke and Jack Dempsey were both known to be good men and evenly matched. Dempsey had the reputation of being the harder hitter, and at the same time went into the ring with the prestige of being the winner of thirty battles. Burke, on the other hand, was believed to have largely gained in hitting power, to have had the advantage of a more scientific training, and being in better fighting condition. Besides this, it was well known that both men meant business, and if not stopped by the police neither would give way until forced to. Everything consequently contributed to make the match one of the most interesting and best contested ever witnessed in this city. As early as 4:30 this afternoon Larkin street in front of the pavilion was filled with people, each determined to get a front place. By 7 o'clock the crowd had so increased in number as must have brought delight to the hearts of those destined to share in the receipts.

When the main doors were thrown open it took the combined efforts of a squad of police and doorkeepers to keep the crowd from rushing in without handing out their money or tickets. For a few minutes it looked as if the match inside would be preceded by a more dangerous one outside, but when the crowd saw that they would not be permitted to force their way in, they good-naturedly fell back, each taking his turn.

When all had taken seats it was estimated that there were 7,000 in the house, while others still came streaming in. The attendance probably reached 8,000. The receipts were $10,000. The contest was a ten rounds, Queensbury rules, small gloves, the winner to take 75 and the loser 25 per cent. of the gate money. Burke scaled 164 pounds and Dempsey 158.

New York Stock Market.

REVIEW.
NEW YORK, November 23.—The market at the opening gave some evidence of the feverish closing of yesterday, and there was quite a considerable liquidation of some of the lower-priced securities, but they were well taken, and we are inclined to think that some large blocks of speculative holdings have been marketed; and such being the case, the atmosphere has probably been considerably cleared, and after the holiday on Thursday there are indications of a better and higher market. It was very generally expected that some serious reaction must ensue, but whatever holdings came out were taken with in a manner which showed that the buyers had full confidence in themselves. An attempt to bid upon money was made again to-day, 9 per cent. being bid, while outside money was offered at 6 per cent. for 60 days. The last quotation was 6 per cent. Prices closed strong.

REMARKS.
The wheat market, though opened steady, has ruled weaker to-day. Foreign markets are still strong, but the increasing receipts and the consequent steady accumulation more than counteracted the effect of this feature.

Tributary markets all dull and exerting no influence on this market.
With present heavy receipts we can see nothing to advance prices much.
Corn ruled quiet and steady with very small fluctuations.
Provisions were dull and steady. Receipts of hogs are liberal.
